Nankai University International Student Handbook

Hello our new students:

Welcome to Nankai University, your home away from home! We are excited to meet you here and have you as one of Nankai-ers at this pretty university. Please find the information below which may help you with frequent questions before your arrival.

BaoDaoZhiNan ·

Get Ready to Meet China

Visa Application

Where to Apply: The Embassy or Consulate of the People's Republic of China in your country

Required Documents: Your Valid Passport, Origin Admission Notice, and Visa Application Form (Form JW201/JW202 )

Kindly Reminder: Please make sure to have your Admission Notice and Form JW202 at the moment when you receive your Visa, as these are the documents that you will need to apply for residence halls when you arrive at Nankai University.

**Please Note****

(1) The X1 visa is only valid for 30 days after your first entry (the entry date included). You should apply for Residence Permit before it expires or your illegal present in China will bring you big problems!

(2) It is required by the law that Exemption Visa is NOT valid for international students who come to study in China. You should have your X1 or X2 Visa ready before you leave.

Time to Get Packed!

What Should I Bring?

---

The answer is: pack light!

Please do not move your whole house to Tianjin, as Tianjin is a comfortable city where you can enjoy your life and get almost everything you need. It will be estimate  $-10^{\circ}\text{C}$  minimum in winter and  $35^{\circ}\text{C}$  maximum in summer. When you enroll, it will be around  $19^{\circ}\text{C}$  to  $30^{\circ}\text{C}$ . So, just pack stuff that you will need right after your arrival and save space for things that you can buy in local convenient stores.

Remember!!

Check the required documents below before you leave. Make sure they are coming with you, safely and happily.

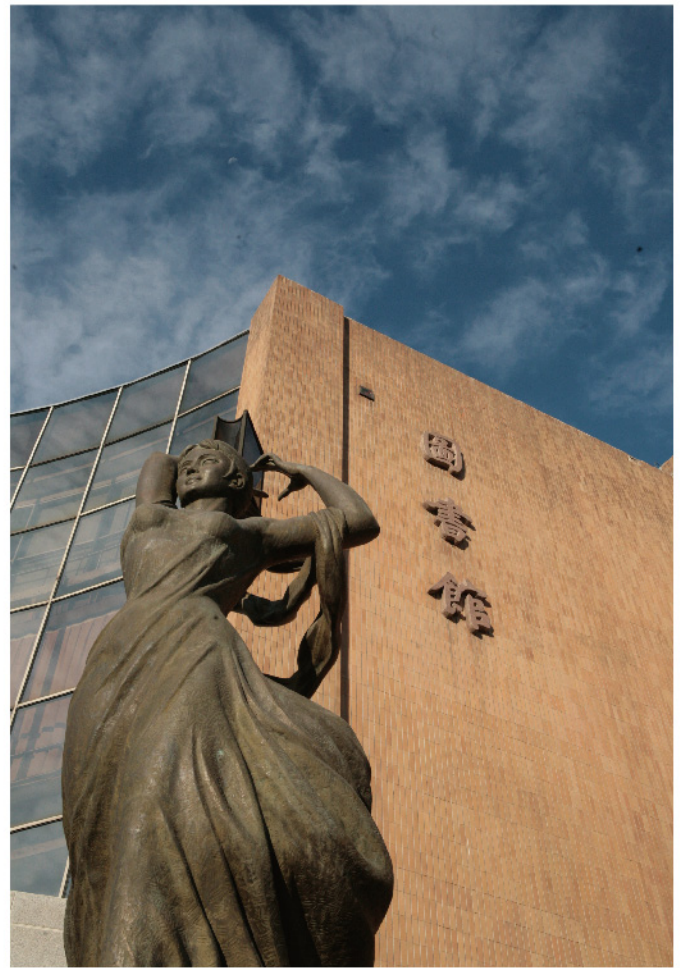

- 1.Valid Passport AND Visa
- 2.Origin Admission Notice from Nankai University
- 3.Origin Visa Application Form for Study Abroad in China (Form JW201/–JW202)
- 4.Tuition Fees (if applicable)
- 5.At least two 2–inch Identification Photos with white backgrounds
- 6.Origin Foreign Physical Examination Form AND Blood Test Report (if applicable)
- 7.Diploma
- 8.Other documents that are required by the school

Kindly Reminder: We highly recommend you to have all the documents above and others such as medical prescriptions and marriage certificate (if applicable) copied and translated before you leave.

---

We highly recommend you bring posters, photos, or any souvenirs as both memories of your home when you may experience culture shocks or homesick, and great gifts for your new friends who will be your sides and make you feel at home!

---

Important Information

---

Residence Permit

---

The XI visa is valid for 30 days from the date of entry into China. Students holding XI visas have to apply for a residence permit at least fifteen working days in advance of the expiration date. The steps for applying are as follows:

1. Register at the International Students Office and pay for your tuition and insurance fee (for Self-Support Students);
2. Have your Examination or verify your physical examination report at Tianjin International Travel Health Care Center. If the report fails to meet their requirements, you will need to re-take the disqualified items, which takes around three business days.
3. Get the residence permit application slip from the International Students Office;
4. Submit the application at Division of Entry and Exit Administration Department of Public Security of Tianjin. The application will take five business days during which the department will keep the passport.

Division of Entry and Exit Administration Department of Tianjin Municipal Public Security

Location: No. 19, Shou'an Street, Hebei District

Time: Monday–Thursday, 8:30–11:00 am and 1:30–5:00pm

Friday, 8:30–11 :00 am and 1 :30–4:30 pm

Direction:

From Balitai Campus: Take a taxi which cost estimate ¥15–30; or take Bus 8 at Balitai Station, get off at Italy Stress, and take a 5-minute walking; or take Bus 832 at Balitai Station, get off at Bei Anqiao Station, and take a 7-minute walking.

From Jinnan Campus: Take bus 612 and follow the direction above from Balitai Campus.

Visa Validation

1. Please pay attention to your visa validation and make sure there are more than 15 business days before your assigned registration date. If we find your visa is expired or will expire soon, we will be sorry to refuse your enrollment, and you will be responsible for all the potential loss;

2. If you decide not to enroll at Nankai University, you will NOT be eligible to use the admission files to apply for a visa to enter China, which will result in illegal entrance and illegal stay in China.

Driving in China

---

Driving licenses issued by other countries are not acknowledged by the Chinese government. You need to apply for a Chinese driver's license upon your arrival. Please note, drunk driving is illegal in China. It is also forbidden to drive or park motors on campus.

Our dear Nankai-ers, we would like to send the warmest welcome to you!

Hope you will enjoy your life at Nankai University, learn knowledge you are passionate for, make friends that will support you lifelong, get to know Nankai as well as China, and love this country as your home away from home!
